

David Grace

Chief Revenue Officer, Deem

David Grace has more than two decades leading strategic sales and account management teams for Enterprise Holdings, the largest car rental company in the world and National Car Rental.

As Deem's Chief Revenue Officer, Grace is leading the sales organization as it accelerates the company's global growth and extends its strategic partnerships.

Grace began his career in Boston as an Account Manager for National Car Rental and quickly moved into leadership roles including, Vice President of Sales and Vice President of Strategic Accounts, where he was responsible for leading nationwide sales. He later transitioned to Enterprise Holdings as the Assistant Vice President of Global Sales and then stepped into the Vice President, Global, Travel Agency and Group Purchasing Sales role.

Grace is a global travel and mobility thought leader and well-known industry speaker. He frequently takes the stage at Business Travel News, ACTE and GBTA events around the world and is quoted regularly in trade publications.

Speaking topics: travel, mobility, ground transportation, technology, growth, strategic sales, NDC.

Latest speaking engagements: BTN Business Travel Trends and Forecasts, BCD Mindmeld, Omnia Connections.